

Greater Boards

Bruce Weber Bio

Bruce Weber is Founder and President at Greater Boards. Bruce brings over 17 years of experience in the non-profit community. Specializing in board development, Bruce has assisted many organizations in achieving their goals whether it is strengthening the board, community engagement, strategic planning, successful board recruiting, strengthening the organizational mission, or fundraising. As a BoardSource Certified Governance Trainer, Bruce can deliver cutting edge tools and methodologies to help in building the right governing board to support the organization. Having served many roles on various non-profit boards Bruce is qualified to provide the guidance and tools necessary to make a successful impact on your organization. Bruce is currently in his third term as a Trustee at the Desert Botanical Garden in Phoenix. He works with a number of Phoenix non-profit organizations spanning Arts and Culture, Human Services, and Education.

Prior to Greater Boards, Bruce was a Partner with Social Venture Partners in Seattle Washington serving on the Investment Committee and Partner Recruitment Committee. His work with SVP led him to become the Managing Partner of the Institute for Family Development, a human services organization in Tacoma Washington.

Prior to Social Venture Partners, Bruce held a variety of positions in the technology industry with Microsoft and Hewlett-Packard.
