

Ken Davis, CPA, CLU, ChFC, CFP

Mr. Davis is an advisor to life agents all across America. He started his career as a CPA with one of the “big Eight” international accounting firms and did that for 7 years. He transitioned into the financial services industry in 1980 where he managed money and did estate planning for over 30 years. He now authors articles on life insurance, income taxes and estate taxes for one of the leading insurance professionals’ web sites. www.producerweb.com. He also is a frequent guest on Broker’s Alliance’s webcasts called the Business Insurance Zone. He is interviewed by nationally famous commentator Steve Savant on various advanced life insurance and business topics.

He is past President of the local chapter of the Arizona CPA Society, and the old Institute of CFP’s. He has taught 2, 8-hour courses on life insurance and annuities for the ASCPA as well as functioned as the chairman of the education committee for two years.