

Amy Armstrong

Amy D. Armstrong, an Arizona native, is the founder of Next Generation Philanthropists and Support My Club; two Arizona based non-profit organizations. In addition to her role as President of both, she serves as the Director and Grant Coordinator for the Kiita Foundation and the Grant Advisor of the Armstrong Family Foundation. She is also a Board Member of SVP Investee Feeding Matters, and Rancho Feliz Charitable Foundation, and is a former Advisory Board member of the Salvation Army and involved with numerous other nonprofits around the Valley.

Her work with Social Venture Partners Arizona has led her to become a Lead Partner for our investee, Camelback High School.

Amy has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communication from the University of Colorado at Boulder and a Bachelor of Arts Degree from The Art Institute of Colorado in Interior Design. After several years as in the design industry in Colorado, she and her family moved back to Arizona in 2008 where she began following in the footsteps of her in-laws, beginning her philanthropic career here in the Valley.

Along with her husband Patrick, she is the parent to Emily (9) and Taylor (6) and enjoys being involved at their school as well as in their favorite hobbies.
