

Professional background:

Claudia Arnold-Sawaf, is the founder and president of Sawaf Financial, LLC, located in the heart of Scottsdale, AZ. Her firm provides high level Financial planning and Investment Management, with her clients at the heart of the process.

Born and raised in Austria, and with a career spanning over 3 continents, Claudia has had the benefit of worldly experience and education. She has spent the last 13 years in wealth management, working with individuals and businesses. She is a well-respected media source, and has been interviewed by Fox News, CBS and NBC News Phoenix and published articles. As a passionate Rotarian, commitment and dedication have always been the hallmark of Claudia's work, and she has consistently received praise throughout her career from clients and colleagues for placing an emphasis on social awareness, volunteerism and role modeling.

Claudia has served on multiple boards, chaired finance committees and has been an integral part in establishing a planned giving program during one of her 3 year board terms in Irvine, California. She has received several awards and honors including the President's Call to Service Award from the White House for her contributions to charitable organizations and the "Woman of the Year" award at her previous company. She is a sought after public speaker, who remains involved with Toastmasters International.