

AFP September 2014 Educational Luncheon

Is there such a thing as “dirty” money? What measures are in place to ensure funds are used according to a donor’s intent? Is there anything wrong with paying a commission to fund raisers?

For many fundraising professionals, the answers to these questions may seem simple...until you confront them head-on in a real life scenario. Come join us on September 3rd for a lively program addressing the real world of ethics and fundraising. Bring your energy, your experiences, your common sense and sense of humor for this fun and informative presentation!
