Intro to Grantseeking

Will You Be a Winner or Loser in the 2014 Elections?

Yes, it is election year again. And yes, we know that you are bracing yourself for the onslaught of TV ads that throw lots of dirt and do little to inform you as a voter. So why should you pay attention to these elections?

If you missed last week's presentation of the Alliance Live, you can now listen to it on-demand here.

Tune in to hear Alliance President & CEO Patrick McWhortor breakdown why the 2014 elections are important to nonprofits, and 3 steps you can take to get started today.

Funding Alerts

The following is a list of foundations we have become aware of that most likely fund nationwide, but do not have a stated giving preference in Arizona or have a history of grantmaking in Arizona. They do not qualify for inclusion to the Arizona Guide to Grants Online database at this time, but might be of interest to your organization. The listing includes brief description of what they fund and a direct link to the Foundation's website.

Academy of General Dentistry Foundation

The mission of the AGD Foundation, the philanthropic partner of the AGD, is to passionately support the efforts of the general dentist toward improving the oral health of the public. The AGD Foundation Grant Program offers financial support to programs in support of access to quality oral health care for underserved populations.

Arizona Game and Fish Department

The purpose of the Local Sportsmen's Group grant program is to help local sportsmen's groups fund projects that promote wildlife conservation through hunter, angler, shooter and trapper recruitment and retention.

Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee

The Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee will partner with the National Football League Foundation to distribute more than $2 million to Arizona nonprofits. The areas of focus include: education, community enhancement, the environment and health and wellness. The Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee will conduct two funding cycles, Summer and Fall, with the Summer cycle beginning on June 23, 2014. Letters of interest

Get the Publicity You Need

Most nonprofits find it difficult to get publicity; by publicizing your events and activities in Arizona's Voice, our monthly magazine, we will bring the needs of nonprofits to greater public awareness. Our Mission: "To Help Those Who Help Others!"

Arizona's Voice will be the voice for nonprofit organizations in Metro Phoenix. Our inaugural issue will be in homes September 2014. Distribution is to 100,000+ of the most affluent families, including drops at ASU. We publish three editions: Northwest, Northeast and Southeast. Arizona's Voice will be in full color on coated stock, making a beautiful impression on our readers.

Businesses and those organizations that sponsor or host community events will find the "Voice" extremely helpful in providing the publicity you need and deserve.

We encourage you to submit your events, activities and news articles to our Editor at Debbie@VoiceAZ for review. Our deadlines are the third Wednesday of the month prior to publication. Remember to add Arizona's Voice to your media list. Debbie can be contacted at the office 602-842-7553 or cell 602-796-2033.
