

Ed Knight, J.D., serves as Director of Strategic Initiatives for A New Leaf, Inc. He is a graduate of ASU's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law and has a master's degree in accounting from Brigham Young University. He began his career at PricewaterhouseCoopers. He has also worked as an estate attorney and his nonprofit experience includes work at the Arizona Community Foundation where he was the Director of the Arizona Endowment Building Institute and Director of the Center for Planned Giving. He is a member of Mesa Community College's Development Board and a member of the State Bar of Arizona.