

Andrea L. Claus received her bachelor's degree from Arizona State University, graduating Summa Cum Laude. She received her law degree at the Phoenix School of Law, where she was both an editor and contributing writer for the Phoenix Law Review, was a recipient of the Governor Raul Castro Scholarship for Academic Excellence, and graduated Cum Laude.

Andrea's areas of expertise include estate planning, probate and trust administration, charitable planning, business formation, and business succession planning. She has experience in planning for both taxable and non-taxable estates.

Along with her legal practice, Andrea serves on the Council of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church and is active in both the legal and philanthropic communities. Andrea served two full terms on the Board of Directors for UMOM, formerly served on the Professional Advisors Council for SARRC, is a member of the Financial Health Advisory Council for HonorHealth, serves on the Board of Directors for the Arizona Humane Society, and is newly installed on the Board of Directors for the Planned Giving Roundtable of Arizona. She is also a member of the Arizona Women's Lawyer Association and is active with the Maricopa County Bar Association's Estate Planning, Probate & Trust section.